Billy is sure gunmen are made by time novels, and warned the school boys and girls to keep away from sensa-tional literature. Then he gave his ree for success.
"First blood," said Billy, "then envi-

Many a man couldn't tell whether he wanted to be a college professor or an augitoneer, and he had luck enough to wanted to be a college professor or an auctioneer, and he had luck enough to keep out of the poorhouse because he found some girl who was big enough, strong enough and willing enough to giand over a washtub. Delegate Joyce of the bartenders' union made the motion that led to an investigating decision. Billy will be heard from probably to-day in answer

Contributions Picking Up.

Cash contributions to Billy's campaign picked up a little on Thursday, but not enough to permit the New York Taber-nacle crowds to acquire merit for liberality. Before the sermon yesterday af-ternoon it was announced that $1.032.13 had been dropped into the pans the day before. This made up a total of $4. birth, his parents 752.63 contributed in four days by congregations aggregating probably $5.000 persons, or about 5 1-2 cents per person.
